President's Message:

Hello,

The time is changing soon and fall has arrived. With the change of seasons, new lessons have started. We have 15-20 new students this year. Thanks to Dick for continuing to teach lessons with Jeff's assistance. The Gnat Boxers continue to remain a strong club. Every member contributes to our success by attending lessons as well as club dances, serving as officers, providing refreshments, helping with raids and retrievals, setting up and tearing down, and, most importantly, acting as ambassadors for the club. These all matter and all help is appreciated. Please contact Karen Howard if you would like to participate in raids and retrievals. Many times Dick needs riders when he is calling at other clubs, give him a call and tag along!

Happy Halloween!

Terry and Greg Moore

Our dance time will be changing! Beginning in January 2019 our dances will start at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. We hope this change will help you enjoy our dances even more.

Monthly Club Dance Highlights:

At the beginning of October, our banner was out to Dixie Squares, Circulators, Norton Grand Squares, and Brecksville Squares. We were also in possession of Apple Creek's banner from a previous raid this past spring.

On Friday, Oct. 5th, with the help of Phantom Raider, Dan Hendricks, we raided Medina and stole their banner. We were hard at work the following weekend stealing Red Lantern's banner on Friday (10/12) and Swing-A-Lings banner on Saturday (10/13).

Seeking retaliation, both Apple Creek and Swing-A-Lings retrieved their banners during our Hobo Stew Dance on Saturday, October 20th.

A plot is being hatched to retrieve our banner from Norton Grand Squares on October 27th. Check out the next installment of "The Banner Saga" to learn if we succeeded.

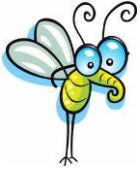

October 6 ~ Donkey Dance: Forty-one dancers (27 Gnat Boxers and 14 guests) circulated and boxed gnats to Ed Pabst calls. Ed's wife, Carol, even did a little cueing herself! Chuck Berry joined by his wife, Shirley, provided the round dancers with cueing. Dick Mackey along with his bride of 62 years, Nancy, were also in attendance as well as Jeff Metcalf. Apple Creek, Brecksville Squares, Norton Grand Squares, and Red Lantern all had dancers in attendance. A cider and donuts spread was provided by Mary & Loretta Stark and Tim Urang. The door prize was won by Mike Brugger. Glen Shaffer won $40 with the 50/50 Raffle and Chuck Orgin won a special Donkey Door Prize. The rest of the evening remains secret.

October 20 ~ Hobo Stew Dance: Forty-eight dancers (24 Gnat Boxers and 24 guests) did Dixie Grands to Hobo Tom Strickland's calls. Kristy Lake, joined by her husband, Paul, provided the round dancers with cueing. Jeff Metcalf was also in attendance. We were honored to have Henry and Karen Cochran, the 2018 Honor Couple, dancing with us! Apple Creek, Brecksville Squares, Circulators, Red Lantern, and Swing-A-Lings all had dancers in attendance. An assortment of desserts along with yummy stew were the refreshments for the evening. Melissa Davis won the 50/50 Raffle and Paul Price won a quilt made by Helen Hawkins as our first door prize. Our second door prize was initially won by Ray Cater. Since Ray and Dottie donated the door prize, which was a gift certificate to Bob Evans, Ray re-gifted it. Another ticket was drawn and Evan Fischer ended up winning!

Definitions

Call: 1) A set of moves dancers do when the caller calls its name. Most calls are made up of simpler calls, i.e. two or more calls combined.

2) A series of calls which traditionally starts and ends with "bow to your partner, bow to your corner."

Tip: The time you spend dancing in one square without a break. Typically, this consists of a patter call and a singing call.

Hash Call: A call which is spoken or chanted rather than sung, but is usually done to background music. A hash call is also called a patter call. You end up with your original partner each time you promenade home.

Singing Call: A call which consists of a song with some of the lyrics replaced by square dance calls.

Inclement weather: Any cancellation of a lesson due to inclement weather will be announced on WQKT radio station ~ 104.5 as well as our website ~ www.gnatboxers.com. Any lessons cancelled due to inclement weather will be made up at the end of the lesson schedule to insure all 25 lessons are covered.
